

Giota Andriakaina

Giota Andriakaina graduated from the School of Fine Arts at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (BA painting) and completed her postgraduate studies at the Ionian University (MA: Audiovisual Arts in the Digital Age). Since 2019, Giota Andriakaina is a member of the Special Teaching Staff at Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (School of Visual and Applied Arts -1st Painting Studio). Selected works of her are in permanent exhibition at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki's Telloglion Foundation of Arts, the Byzantine Culture Museum of Thessaloniki, the Florina Museum of Contemporary Art, as well as within private collections.

Solo exhibitions

2022 HOLD ON! Ionian Parliament, Corfu, Greece.

2019 THE AH! MOMENT IN THE LIFE OF USELESS 'THINGS', Bey Hamam, Thessaloniki, Greece.

2018 "WHY DON'T YOU EAT OKRA, MICHALIS? THE POETICS OF EVERYDAY LIFE IN CRISIS, Tsarsi Hamam, Mytilene, Greece.

2017 HOW TO CROSS A THREAD BRIDGE, Gallery 7, Athens, Greece.

2017 UNDER PRESSURE, Vitrina OTE, Thessaloniki, Greece.

2016 NOT A DAY WITHOUT A LINE, Artis Causa, Thessaloniki, Greece.

2016 IF LIFE WERE A THREAD, Telloglion Art Foundation Museum, Thessaloniki, Greece.

2015 "FROM A THREAD" , Museum of Contemporary Art of Florina, Greece.

Art fairs

ART ATHINA 2021, Gallery 7.

ART ATHINA 2014, Gallery 7.

<https://giotaandriakaina.com/>